Assistant Professor in Social Work

The Mount Mercy University Social Work Program invites applications for a fulltime, tenure track position at the assistant rank in an established CSWE accredited undergraduate program. The program seeks applicants who demonstrate strength teaching in a diverse student community and have a commitment to social justice and service. Appointment starts August 2021. Salary and rank depend on qualification.

Responsibilities

Applicants will share Foundation and Advanced Field Instruction liaison responsibilities and seminars; teach coursework in generalist practice with a focus at the micro and mezzo levels and diversity; provide academic advising; engage in scholarship; and participate in program functioning.

Qualifications

Ph.D. or DSW preferred with MSW from a CSWE accredited school of social work, and two years fulltime post MSW social work employment, required. Additional professional practice, scholarship, and recent teaching experience are highly desirable. Ph.D. or DSW required for tenure track.

Deadline for submission

July 1 or until position is filled

Interested applicants should submit curriculum vitae, an application letter summarizing qualifications for the position, evidence of effective teaching (e.g. student evaluations of the instructor, classroom observation evaluations), undergraduate and graduate transcripts, and names of three references as Microsoft Word or Adobe Acrobat attachments to: hr@mtmercy.edu with the subject line, “Social Work.” Only application materials emailed to this address will be considered. Paper application materials will not be reviewed.

Mount Mercy University is a Catholic, coeducational University founded by the Sisters of Mercy in 1928 enrolling nearly 1800 students. The University offers a variety of liberal arts, professional, accelerated, and graduate degree programs on our picturesque campus overlooking the city of Cedar Rapids.

The successful candidate should demonstrate a willingness to support Mount Mercy’s mission which promotes excellence in education, service, and social justice. The University welcomes those of diverse backgrounds, and has a strong commitment to fostering a culturally diverse atmosphere for faculty, staff and students. The program encourages applications from underrepresented groups. The University is an equal opportunity employer and a smoke-free campus.
