Margaret Bridgen Rostenbach Memorial Scholarship for Social Work Undergraduate Students

Margaret Bridgen Rostenbach established this fund to encourage social work students, particularly with regard to providing case work.

The award is made in the fall of the student’s junior year or senior year. One $1,000 award will be made.

The criteria for the award is academic success and aptitude for and commitment to the profession as demonstrated in volunteer or work experience.

Students self-nominate.

The application includes:
- a 1-page essay addressing:
  - what most qualifies you for this scholarship (your academic, volunteer work history)
  - what you feel your contributions to the social work field will be, particularly with regard to providing case work
- The name of one faculty reference that has agreed to be contacted.
- Financial information entry

An unofficial current transcript will be applied to the application by the School of Social Work administrative office.

Application deadline: Friday, November 12, 2021. The selection will be made on or about December 15, 2022 with disbursement of the $1,000 award to be made to the student’s University account in January 2022.
