

This departmental application form is for your reference.

You provide answers to these questions in the online application.

Last Name

First Name

Univ ID#

Indicate program of study: __PhD __Part-time PhD __MSW/PhD Combined Program

How/from whom did you hear about our program?

Rank your preference for funding. You will be considered for all awards for which you are eligible. Please rank highest preference (first) to lowest preference (second). (optional)

- Teaching Assistantship 50% time
- Research Assistantship 50% time

Research Interests

Years of equivalent full-time (30 or more hours per week) social work or social work-related experience

Years of equivalent full-time (30 or more hours per week) social work experience after completing the MSW.

Statistics and Research Methods Course(s) previously taken at all levels (BA, Master's, PhD).

Statistics courses: An introductory statistics course is required prior to program start and includes graphing techniques for presenting data, descriptive statistics, correlation, regression, prediction, logic of statistical inference, elementary probability theory, and tests of significance. Intermediate and advanced statistics courses build on these topics.

Statistics Course Title (optional)

Statistics Course please list in this order: course level, credit hours, year completed, grade received. (optional)

Research Methods courses title. (optional)

Research Methods Course please list in this order: course level, credit hours, year completed, grade received. (optional)

Bachelor or master's thesis title, if applicable (optional)

Research experience: If applicable, describe your research experiences outside the classroom. (optional)

Teaching experience: If applicable, describe your teaching experience in or outside the classroom. (optional)